	[PROPOSED] ORDER RE BRIEFING SCHEDULE
	[CR 08 0160 SI]]

Defendant John Joseph Cota ("defendant") has filed several pre-trial motions in the above-referenced matter, including motions to dismiss certain counts of the indictment and a motion to sever. The hearing for said motions is currently scheduled for July 18, 2008. The parties initially agreed to and the Court ordered a briefing schedule that required the government to file any opposition to said motions by June 27, 2008 and the defendant to file any reply by July 8, 2008. In light of the substantive nature of the motions, including several constitutional arguments, and in light of government counsels' schedule, the government has proposed and the defendant has agreed to modify the briefing schedule.

As such, with the agreement of the parties, the parties request that this Court amend the briefing schedule so that the government may file any oppositions to the motions by July 3, 2008 and the defendant may file any reply motions by July 11, 2008. The hearing date would remain the same, July 18, 2008.

Accordingly, and with the consent of the defendant, the Court orders that the briefing schedule for motions to be heard on July 18, 2008 in the above-referenced matter shall be adjusted as follows: (1) the government may file any opposition to said motions by Thursday, July 3, 2008, and (2) the defendant may file any reply motions by Friday, July 11, 2008. The hearing date shall remain July 18, 2008 at 11:00 a.m.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
